

Buenos Aires – 4 Days Cultural & Historic Tour

(March 2026)

Day 1 – The Historic Heart of Argentina

- Plaza de Mayo Walking Tour – Discover the symbolic square of Argentina's history. Admire the Casa Rosada (Presidential Palace), the Cabildo, and the Metropolitan Cathedral where General San Martín rests.
- Guided Tour of Casa Rosada Museum – Learn about Argentina's political past. (Advance reservation required; tours in English available).
- Enjoy a traditional Argentine lunch (suggested - not included)
- Stroll through Avenida de Mayo, the city's grand boulevard, lined with Belle Époque architecture.
- Time to visit the spectacular Colon theater: guide tour.
- Stop for coffee at Café Tortoni, the oldest café in Buenos Aires (founded in 1858).

Day 2 – Architecture & National Landmarks

- Palacio Barolo Guided Visit – A fascinating building inspired by Dante's Divine Comedy. Tours include explanations of its symbolism and panoramic city views.
- Congress of the Nation (Exterior & Plaza del Congreso) – Admire the imposing neoclassical architecture and surrounding statues.
- Classic Argentine steakhouse near Congreso. (suggested - not included)
- Visit the National Historical Museum in Parque Lezama. The exhibits include objects from the independence era, generals' uniforms, and key documents that shaped Argentina.
- Dinner at a cozy local restaurant in San Telmo, the city's oldest neighborhood, full of cobblestones and colonial houses (suggested - not included)

Day 3 – Arts & Culture: La Boca and Palermo

- La Boca Neighborhood – Walk through the birthplace of tango, where every corner is filled with vibrant murals, local artists, and lively atmosphere.
- Caminito Street Museum – Stroll along this world-famous open-air museum, lined with colorful houses, artisan stalls, and live tango dancers.
- La Bombonera Stadium – Panoramic visit of Boca Juniors' legendary soccer stadium, one of the most passionate temples of football in the world. (Optional entrance tickets available).
- Local Art & Culture – Browse art galleries, street performances, and meet artisans who keep La Boca's traditions alive.
- Relaxed meal in La Boca (suggested - not included)
- Transfer to Palermo. Visit MALBA (Latin American Art Museum of Buenos Aires), home to Frida Kahlo, Diego Rivera, Antonio Berni, and modern Latin American artists.
- Coffee break in Palermo's leafy parks or in a stylish café.
- Tango Show with Dinner – Experience Argentina's most iconic dance at an elegant venue. Choose a classic theater-style performance or a more intimate tango house (suggested - not included)

Day 4 – Recoleta: History & Legacy

- Guided visit of the Recoleta Cemetery, a monumental labyrinth of mausoleums, including the resting place of Eva Perón. Argentina's political and cultural figures.
- Visit the Basilica of Our Lady of the Pillar, an 18th-century colonial church.
- Relaxed lunch at a café overlooking Plaza Francia (suggested - not included)
- Time for shopping at the Recoleta Handicraft Fair (weekends) or free time at a cultural center Centro Cultural Recoleta.
- Enjoy dinner at a refined Argentine restaurant, sampling Malbec wine and traditional dishes (suggested - not included)

✦ Practical Notes

- Weather in March: Warm days (25°C average), cooler evenings – light jacket recommended.
- Reservations to make in advance:
 - Casa Rosada guided tour
 - Teatro Colón visit or evening performance
 - Palacio Barolo guided tour.
 - Tango dinner show.
- Accommodation suggestions:
 - Recoleta (elegant, quieter)
 - Palermo (lively, cafés and parks)
 - Downtown (very central, close to landmarks).

Gloria Pais

Gates to Argentina

Tourism Services

Email: gloria.gta.office@gmail.com

Mobile: +54-381-3598639

+972-54-6787997